

The Current Issues of Economic and Social Integration – in Hungary and Taiwan

Agenda

22 February 2016 (Monday)

08.30 - 09.00	Registration (BBS Faculty of International Management and Business Campus)
09.00 - 10.00	Opening of the conference
		Prof. Éva SÁNDOR-KRISZT, Rector of BBS Mr. Wen-lung TAO, Representative, Taipei Representative Office in Hungary Mr. Li-ying Peters Chen, Ministry of Education (RoC, Taiwan) H.E. Ambassador Levente SZÉKELY, former Representative of Hungary to RoC	Keynote speech
10.00 - 10.15	Coffee break
10.15 - 13.15	Section 1	Economic elements of development
	Moderator	Presenter Dean KARALEKAS (Canada) György CSÁKI To-hai LIOU Csaba MOLDICZ	Title Hard State: Phases and factors in Taiwan's economic development Developmental state, globalisation, crisis – Taiwan's macroeconomic adjustment Taiwan's Role in the Enhancing Asia-Europe Economic Interactions Economic determinants of integration and disintegration in the light of China-Taiwan Relations
	11.30 - 11.45 Coffee break

		Anthony KUO	Harnessing Frugal Innovation to Create Economic and Social Value
		Éva KRUPPA	"Inside or outside the big circle?" Trade policy in East Asia and the effects of FTAs and mega-regional trade agreements
		Judit BEKE LISÁNYI	GMO: food security or a new type of dependency
		Miklós SZANYI	Changes in Hungarian FDI-attraction policies 1990-2015
13.15 – 14.15	Lunch (at BBS FIMB)
14.15 – 16.30	Section 2	Polity, politics and policies. The questions of democracy. Hungary and Taiwan
	Moderator	Presenter	Title
		Ambrus Gábor SZENTESI	An Overview from European Perspective of the Cross-Taiwan-Strait Political Relations in a Multilateral Far Eastern Framework
		C-M. LIANG	Powers and limits of the European Council
		Shih-Hao KANG	The Ukrainian Crisis in the Backyard: an International 'Event' Perceived/Constructed in Taiwan
	15.15 – 15.30 Coffee break
		Chia-Wei CHANG (a) – Máté SZABÓ (b)	Political Participation as a Propeller of Democracy: An Observation on the Taiwan Case from her Authoritarianism to Democratization
		Leo N. S. LIN (a) – János VÁNDOR (b)	External factors in the democratization process of Taiwan (a) and Hungary (b)
16.30 – 16.45	Coffee break

BGE

16.45 – 18.30	Section 3	Economic and trade issues related to the development of Hungary and Taiwan
	Moderator	Presenter	Title
		Tamás NOVÁK	CEE-Taiwan Economic Relations – New Opportunities and Old Challenges
		Chien-Fu LIN	Taiwan's Contributions to Asia-Pacific Regional Economic Integration and their Applicability to EU-Taiwan FTA
		Pál MAJOROS	Taiwan - European Union relations
		Chia-Ching CHENG	China-CEE Cooperation: Challenges or Opportunities for Hungary-Taiwan relations
		Ágnes SZUNOMÁR	Taiwan in Hungary's Eastern opening policy
19.30 –	Dinner hosted by the Rector of Budapest Business School at Danubius Hotel Arena (Hotel Stadion) (by invitation only)

23 February 2016 (Tuesday)

09.30 – 12.45	Section 4	The media, the civil society, and related issues
	Moderator	Presenter	Title
		Klára FALK-BÁNÓ – Katalin KOLLÁTH	Developing Cultural Intelligence – making internationalisation more successful
		Chao-yu WU	Reconstructing a Multicultural Subjectivity of Taiwan: A Perspective on Critical Recognition
		Katalin LÁNYI	21st-century emigration from Hungary from a gender perspective
	11.00-11.15 Coffee break
		Chyong-Fang KO	Age, health and gender: A comparative study of Hungary and Taiwan
		Éva ERDÉLYI	Thinking of production while dealing with climate change

BGE

		Ji-Ping LIN  Dávid KARÁCSONYI – Kang-Tsung CHANG	Construction of Synthetic Indicators for Measuring the Level of Social Integration and Identity: Evidence from Utilizing Micro Genealogy Data of Taiwan Indigenous Peoples  Comparison of Urban Land Expansion and Population Growth in Taipei Metropolitan Region
12.45 – 13.15	Concluding remarks
13.30 – 14.30	Lunch (at BBS FIMB)
19.00	Dinner hosted by Mr. Wen-lung TAO, Representative, Taipei Representative Office in Hungary (By invitation only)		